News of the Dairy, Live Stock and Poultry Pools

Plans for a vigorous and concentrated campaign to secure memberships among the farmers of Alberta, for the Dairy, Live Stock and Poultry Pools now in process of organization, were formulated at a series of meetings held in Edmonton during the past three days.

The dates for this drive have been set for the period from June 8th to 28th next, and the whole province will be covered by the campaign to secure signatures to the contracts for these new co-operative marketing pools.

The meetings culminated Wednesday afternoon in a conference held between members of the Boards of the three pools and representatives of the press, when a full discussion took place over the plans for the publicity drive which will accompany the drive for memberships. After being given full information regarding the pools, the newspaper men present pledged their hearty support and gave helpful advice in regard to the proposed drive.

On Monday and Tuesday members of the Board of the Provincial Dairy Pool met with the directors of the Central Alberta Dairy Producers Association of Alix, when the relationship between the two pools was discussed. It was finally decided that there would be a joint contract, and that the Alix pool would market all of the product, received by them through the selling agency of the Provincial Pool. The terms of the contract were discussed and agreed upon. The Alix pool will have representation on the Selling Board of the Provincial Pool in direct proportion to the percentage of product they contribute. An active campaign through the Alix territory for memberships was also agreed on, it being decided that the methods of both pools would be fully explained, and that the producers would have the option of joining either pool on the understanding of course, that ultimately the product would be marketed through the same trade channels.

Decides on Dates for Drive

On Tuesday afternoon a joint meeting of the full Boards of the three Provincial Pools was held, when the dates for the drive for memberships was settled as for June 8th to 28th. It has been found that during the winter the road conditions were such that it was impossible to cover sufficient territory in a drive for memberships, therefore the early summer drive was decided on. Over 400 meetings were held during the winter, however, and in no case was the audience unsympathetic and at all points canvassing committees were set up. Some 1000 canvassers are now ready with full information and copies of contracts, so that there will be no delay when the concentrated drive starts in June.

CHANGE IN ALBERTA CONSTITUENCIES

According to the Calgary Herald there will be a great change made in provincial constituencies from Didsbury north to Lacombe when the new redistribution bill comes up before the legislature. There are eight constituencies in this section of Alberta, some of which are very poorly shaped. It is proposed that these eight constituencies be merged into four, so that it is likely that the Didsbury constituency will lose its identity in the mixup as it is on the extreme south of the proposed change.

Didsbury Will Have Baseball Team

The outlook for a good baseball team this summer is very bright, there is enough good material in town and the Dawson brothers have expressed their desire to become members so that Didsbury will likely again be on the map in baseball circles.

A meeting was held last week and the following officers were elected: Hon. Pres. W. G. Liesemer; President, Mayor Chambers; Vice-Pres. J. V. Berscht and S. Watt; Secretary, H. Liesemer.

Finance Committee—G. Julien, C. Reiter, H. Liesemer.

Grounds Committee—H. Stauffer, H. Clemens, W. Keith.

The Captain and Manager will be appointed later.

The boys are preparing to put on a minstrel show about the end of June to help to finance the Club and promise something good.

SEVERAL BULLS BOUGHT AT SALE

Several of our farmers attended the bull sale and horse show held at Calgary last week and some of them bought some good bulls to head their herds. The opinion was expressed that the bulls offered for sale this year were better than last year. Those who bought were: F. Ingham, three bulls; W. Coats, three Angus bulls; I. Vipond, Shorthorn; W. Wilson, Shorthorn; S. L. Shandy, Angus; J. N. Paton bought a high priced bull and sold three of his own. R. A. McFarlane was shipping two fine bulls to the sale from Carstairs but unfortunately one of them broke its leg while being loaded consequently it was sold on the spot for butchering.

LOCAL MEN ELECTED TO OFFICE

The annual meeting of the Alberta Amateur Baseball Association was held in Calgary last Saturday and a great deal of enthusiasm was shown for a good season's sport.

Two of Didsbury's well known leaders in sport circles were honored at this meeting when J. A. McGhee was elected one of the Honorary Presidents and E. E. Freeman First Vice-President of the Association.

C. B. Cheeseman of Cardston was elected President and the old standby E. D. Batttrum was again elected Secretary.

A Romance of the Spanish Main

CAPTAIN BLOOD

by RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyrighted, 1922, by Rafael Sabatini

"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Vitaphone picture with J. Warren Kerrigan in the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

SYNOPSIS

Captain Peter Blood, buccaneer, commands a fleet of pirates. The Spanish ship Milagrosa sinks the Royal Mary, and Arabella Bishop, with whom Blood is in love, and Lord Wade, sent to the West Indies to make peace with piracy, are prisoners. Captain Blood's flagship, the Arabella, sails into the Milagrosa and her sister ship, the Hidalgo, and engages them in battle.

CHAPTER XVI.—Continued

Speechless, livid of face, his mouth distorted and his breathing labored, Don Miguel de Espinosa uttered an inarticulate cry of rage, and his hand swept to his sword. But even as his fingers closed upon the hilt the other's closed upon his wrist to arrest his action.

"What do you intend by me?" the Spaniard inquired at last, his voice hoarse. Captain Blood shrugged. The firm lips smiled a little. "All that I intend has been already accomplished. Your boats are being launched. You are at liberty to embark in them with your men before we scuttle this ship. Yonder are the shores of Hispaniola. Get you home, to Spain, Don Miguel, and to concerns that you understand better than this trade of the sea."

Lord Julian stood forward to meet him.

"Ye don't mean, sir, that you'll let that Spaniard scoundrel go free?" he cried.

"And who the devil may you be?" Captain Blood asked, with a marked Irish accent.

"I am Lord Julian Wade."

"Are you, indeed? Then perhaps you'll explain what the plague you're doing aboard this ship?"

Lord Julian controlled himself to afford the desired explanation. He did so shortly and impatiently.

"He took you prisoner, did he—along with Miss Bishop there?"

"You are acquainted with Miss Bishop?" cried his lordship, passing from surprise to surprise.

But this mannerless fellow had stepped past him, and was making a leg to the lady, who on her side remained unresponsive and forbidding to the point of scorn. Observing this, he turned to answer Lord Julian's question.

"I had that honor once," said he. "But it seems that Miss Bishop has a shorter memory."

ASK THIS HALIFAX NURSE

She Is Willing to Answer Letters from Women Asking About Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Halifax, Nova Scotia.—"I am a maternity nurse and have recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to many women who were childless, also to women who need a good tonic. I am English and my husband is American, and he told me of Lydia E. Pinkham while in England. I would appreciate a copy or two of your little books on women's ailments. I have one which I keep to lend. I will willingly answer letters from any woman asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. S. M. COLEMAN, 24 Uniacke Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Could Not Sleep Nights

Dublin, Ontario.—"I was weak and irregular, with pains and headaches, and could not sleep nights. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by reading the letters in the newspapers and tried it because I wanted to get better. I have got good results from it and I feel a lot stronger and am not troubled with such bad headaches as I used to be and am more regular. I am gaining in weight all the time and I tell my friends what kind of medicine I am taking. You may use my letter as a help to others."—Mrs. JAMES RACHO, Box 12, Dublin, Ontario.

W. N. U. 1572

His lips were twisted into a wry smile, and there was pain in the blue eyes that gleamed so vividly under his black brows, pain blending with the mockery of his voice. But of all this it was the mockery alone that was perceived by Miss Bishop; she resented it.

"I do not number thieves and pirates among my acquaintance, Captain Blood," said she; whereupon his lordship exploded in excitement.

"Captain Blood!" he cried. "Are you Captain Blood?"

"If you'll escort Miss Bishop aboard my ship, I shall be obliged to you," he heard Blood's voice in level tones. "I beg that you'll make haste. We are about to scuttle this hulk."

CHAPTER XVII.
Thief and Pirate

Captain Blood paced the poop of his ship alone in the tepid dusk and the growing golden radiance of the great poop lantern in which a seaman had just lighted the three lamps. About him all was peace. The signs of the day's battle had been effaced. A group of men squatting about the main hatch were drowsily chanting, their hardened natures softened, perhaps, by the calm and beauty of the night. Captain Blood did not hear them; he did not hear anything save the echo of those cruel words which had dubbed him thief and pirate!

Thief and pirate! She had summoned him up, convicted him and sentenced him in that one phrase. He was this—and pirate—in her eyes; nothing more, nothing less. What, then, was she? What are those who have no charity? he asked the stars. Thief and pirate she had branded him. She should be justified. Thief and pirate should be prove henceforth; no more nor less; as bowless, as remorseless, as all those others who had deserved those names. She had shown him clearly to which world he belonged. Let him now justify her. She was aboard his ship, in his power, and he desired her.

He laughed softly, jeeringly, as he leaned on the taffrail, looking down at the phosphorescent gleam in the ship's wake, and his own laughter startled him by its evil note. He checked suddenly, and shivered. A sob broke from him to end that ribald burst of mirth. He took his face in his hands and found a chill moisture on his brow.

Meanwhile Lord Julian was engaged in solving the curious problem that had so completely escaped the buccaneer. He was spurred to it by vague stirrings of jealousy. He wondered what precisely might have been her earlier relations with Captain Blood. He had observed, for instance, that Blood's ship was named the Arabella, and he knew that Arabella was Miss Bishop's name. And he had observed all the odd particulars of the meeting of Captain Blood and Miss Bishop, and the curious change that meeting had wrought in each.

The lady had been monstrously uncivil to the Captain. It was a very foolish attitude for a lady in her circumstances to adopt towards a man in Blood's; and his lordship could not imagine Miss Bishop as normally foolish. Yet, in spite of her rudeness, in spite of the fact that she was the niece of a man whom Blood must regard as his enemy, Miss Bishop and his lordship had been shown the utmost consideration aboard the Captain's ship. They were given the freedom of the great cabin, and they had sat down to table with Pitt, the master, and Wolverstone, who was Blood's lieutenant, both of whom had shown them the utmost courtesy. Also there was the fact that Blood, himself, had kept almost studiously from intruding upon them.

WHEN THE SYSTEM IS ALL RUN DOWN

Often All That Is Needed Is a Tonic to Build Up the Blood

There are many women who have been invalids or semi-invalids so long that they accept their condition as a life burden. They have endured broken sleep, stomach trouble, nervousness, headaches and weakness so long that they have given up hope of enjoying good health. In most of these cases a well chosen diet, fresh air and a tonic to build up the blood would do wonders. To all run-down, nervous people, the experience of Mrs. H. J. Cameron, Waterville, N.S., will be of deep interest. She says: "About two years ago I was in a miserable run-down condition. I was unable to do my work, my head ached day and night, my nerves were all unstrung, and for three weeks I could not eat or sleep. I then decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial and got six boxes. By the time I had used half of them I felt much better, and when I had taken the six boxes I was as well as ever. I could work all day and not feel tired and have been strong and healthy ever since. I have never taken any medicine that did me so much good and will always highly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

Taxation and Obligations

Insistent demands continue to be made in many quarters upon the Dominion Government to follow certain financial and economic policies which may be briefly summed up under the following headings:

1. Reduce the Income Tax.
2. Reduce the tariff.
3. Reduce railway freight rates.
4. Reduce ocean freight rates.
5. Reduce all national expenditures.
6. Lower the rate of letter postage.
7. Commence paying off the national debt.

Equally insistent demands are made upon the Government at Ottawa to:

1. Provide more employment.
2. Develop natural resources.
3. Increase immigration to promote such development.
4. Construct great public works.
5. Build the Hudson Bay Railway and various branch lines.
6. Develop the St. Lawrence canals and power schemes.
7. Increase the tariff to encourage home industries and increase employment.

Inasmuch as one set of demands is, in many respects, destructive of the other set, it is at once apparent that the Finance Minister has a real problem on his hands in endeavoring to steer a straight course for the ship of state. He cannot please all and it would be worse than useless to make the attempt.

At the same time it must be recognized, and it is generally recognized, that Canada cannot go on indefinitely without making a serious attempt to pay off its huge national debt which now rests like the dead weight of a wet blanket on the country, depressing industry, creating unemployment, and retarding development. With the exception of the demand for the reduction of the tariff, in regard to which there is a sharp difference of opinion, people as a whole would welcome and support all the demands enumerated in the first list mentioned above.

But how is taxation to be reduced in any effective degree and at the same time substantial payments made on account of the national debt? How are freight rates to be lowered and at the same time the deficit on the National Railways wiped out? How can national expenditures be substantially decreased and at the same time policies inaugurated for the development of natural resources, the construction of railways and other public works, and work created so as to do away with unemployment?

When urging reductions in taxation it must always be born in mind that to meet interest charges on our war debt Canada requires to raise a larger sum annually than the whole budget of the Dominion not so very many years ago. In addition many other millions are required annually to pay pensions and otherwise provide for disabled soldiers. Costs of government, like the cost of everything else, is greater today than was the case ten years ago.

Nevertheless, the picture is not as dark as it may at first glance appear. While Canada's import trade has fallen in the last year or two, with a consequent marked decline in Customs revenues, the export trade of the Dominion is steadily and even rapidly rising, which means that we are buying more at home and selling more abroad. In other words, Canada is becoming a more self-contained and self-supporting country, and this makes for national strength and future wealth and prosperity.

Unquestionably there are still many ways in which national expenditures can be reduced through the consolidation of government services, with consequent elimination of overlapping and duplication of services and much waste. The Civil Service at Ottawa is admittedly over-manned. In tackling this problem the Federal authorities may well take a leaf from the economy book of the Coolidge Administration at Washington.

The main lesson for the people of Canada to learn, however, is that for the time being they must forego those additional public works and services which can only be provided through large public expenditures. True, such constructive enterprises would provide temporary employment, but it would be only temporary, while the new debt thus created would not only defer the day of debt reduction, but would increase the present high weight of that debt. Money should only be expended on revenue producing services which will carry their own interest charges and add something to the general revenue and advancement of the country.

There is need for economy everywhere, but there is still greater need for hard work on the part of each individual citizen, productive work, work that will result in still further increasing the export trade of the Dominion and provide increasing traffic for our railways. Instead of holding out for the last dollar in profits and wages, Canadian manufacturer and workman must be willing to accept a little less and give a full day's output in service and work. Only by so doing will conditions be developed which will mean more work, better pay, permanent development, and ability to carry and discharge our national obligations.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

APRIL 19

LIFE IN THE EARLY CHURCH

Golden Text: The multitude of them that believed were of one heart and soul. Acts 4:32.

Lesson: Acts 4:1 to 5:11.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 133.

The Text Explained and Illumined
Christian Unity, Acts 4:32-35. There was the greatest unity of feeling and purpose in the early Christian Church; as the proverbial expression has it, they were of one heart and soul.

"My own idea of a church is a great religious democracy, where the rich and the poor, the educated and the ignorant, the cultured and all others, gather to worship and commune with a Being so far exalted as to make relative human conditions unmentionable, unthinkable, and unnoticeable in his presence" (Leslie M. Shaw).

Settled on the northwestern shore of the Dead Sea, and living in scattered communities throughout Palestine at this time, were the Essenes, a sect that literally had all things common. Each one deposited whatever he possessed in a general treasury, of which several managers took charge, supplying from it the needs of all. In Egypt there was a Jewish sect called the Therapeutae whose members gave away all their possessions when they joined the order, and there was among them no distinction of rich or poor. It is said of the disciples at Jerusalem that "not one of them said that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common." With them, however, the giving up of possessions was voluntary (5:4)—each one regarded his property as held in trust for others. Property was sold and the money placed at the disposal of the apostles only as some rich and generous member saw there was need.

You Have to Know How

A Manitoba farmer bought 22 head of feeder steers ten months ago. He sold them the other day after spending $25 per head on feed, at a net profit of $28 per head. The farmer who doesn't know how will say this was a case of luck. The truth probably is that the Manitoba farmer won out in a bad cattle year because he knew how to buy in the first place and how to feed and finish cattle in the second place. Not every farmer does.—Calgary Herald.

The Oil for the Farmer.—A bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the farm house will save many a journey for the doctor. It is not only good for the children when taken with colds and croup, and for the mature who suffer from pains and aches, but there are directions for its use on sick cattle. There should always be a bottle of it in the house.

Youthful Farmers in Alberta

Dead Germans Found in Scuttled Destroyer

Officers and Sailors Evidently Not Warned When Fleet Was Sunk

Nothing Else Builds Him Up So Much

So Says Mr. Allan McMullin of Dodd's Kidney Pills

Nova Scotia Man Was Unable to Move in His Bed, But Dodd's Kidney Pills Brought Him Relief.

Upper Grand Mira, N.S.—(Special).—"I am more than thankful to Dodd's Kidney Pills, because they have helped me so much," states Mr. McMullin, a well known and highly respected resident of this place. "I know I could not live without them. Before I started taking Dodd's Kidney Pills I was so bad I could not move in my bed. I was suffering with rheumatism, lumbago and pains in my back. I could not rest day or night. I had to turn myself in bed with straps. After the first box of Dodd's Kidney Pills I noticed a great improvement. I am sorry I did not start taking them ten years ago. I will never be without them if I can get them. I cannot find anything which builds me up so much."

It is statements like the above that have made Dodd's Kidney Pills a household remedy throughout Canada.

Reaps Good Returns

J. H. Anderson, a farmer near Magrath, Alberta, reports that his income from a forty-acre field of wheat in the 1924 season was $2,000, or $50 an acre.

With so thorough a preparation at hand as Miller's Worm Powders the mother who allows her children to suffer from the ravages of worms is unwise and culpably careless. A child subjected to the attacks of worms is always unhealthy, and will be stunted in its growth. It is a merciful act to rid it of these destructive parasites, especially when it can be done without difficulty.

Love and Not Fear

The Bishop of London says that it would be almost comic now to hear a sermon about hell. Which means that the basis of religion is at last being interpreted as love and not fear.

II.

That is also our comfort. And none shall take it from us.

Gathered at the foot of the Cross of Christ stands the multitude of enemies. They had mistreated Him in the most shameful manner; had scourged and crucified Him. But what was engaging their attention now? Ah! They were parting His garments and upon His vesture they are casting lots. Not one eye is raised to Him. Looking down from the Cross Christ saw this scene. But a similar scene meets His eyes when He, for the last time, gazes into the future and with His all-seeing eye sweeps the earth. Looking at the latter times He sees a world that resembled the world in the days of Noah, when men ate and drank, and married wives and were given in marriage; and the world in the days of Lot, when men bought and sold, planted and builded. None were concerned about the salvation of their souls. None cared for Jesus, the crucified Christ. It was a self-righteous, hardened people that Jesus beheld, a people that had forgotten God and that cared neither for His law nor His will; a people that was walking the broad way and with hasty strides nearing eternal damnation. A people such as that cannot be comforted. Even as swine which tread the pearls under foot when cast before them, so will they tread the gospel and the love of God. "Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet will He not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the Lord." (Isaiah 26:10).

In the midst of the multitude beneath the Cross there is yet another band. Their numbers are few, but nevertheless the Lord sees them, and they are precious in His sight. To that small group His mother belongs, also His disciples and those who had accepted Him by faith. Later this group is joined by the malefactor to the right, the penitent thief, as well as by the centurion beneath the Cross, and still later by the three thousand persons converted through the sermon of the apostle Peter as well as all those, who through the Word of God and the Gospel, have been enlightened and saved. We, too, my beloved friends, are members of this group. Like the children of this world, we also had the members of this group at one time been deceived. They, too, had thought there was peace where there was no peace. But they had come to a better knowledge. They had read the holy law of God; had seen the demands which God made upon them and the Holy Ghost had applied that law to their hearts. Through this they had come to a knowledge of their sinfulness. "For by the law cometh the knowledge of sin." Instead of the righteousness which they thought they possessed they found unrighteousness, instead of obedience to God they found disobedience, instead of a life pleasing unto God they found one that aroused His anger. That very thing you too have found, have you not? You know that God, your God, can take no delight in the hatred you bear him and your neighbor, in your envy and in your lust? Ah! And where a man has come to this knowledge then he can no more feel himself secure. Then he begins to be disturbed in his conscience and to tremble before wrath of an angry God. Something of this trembling you too have experienced have you not? Have you never been disturbed because of your transgressions? Have you not had a taste of the wrath of God? When the sinner begins to be uneasy because of his sins and tremble before his Maker, he in anxious concern asks, as did the jailer of Philippi, "What must I do to be saved?" What must I render unto God that His wrath might cease? How can I fulfil His divine law? What punishment will be mine if I fail in this? That small band Christ saw when He looked down from the Cross.

To them He utters the words "It is finished." "It is finished." The law is fulfilled. Not merely a part of the law did He fulfill, but all, and that not imperfectly but fully. The penalty has already been paid. Not a penalty for merely a few of the sins, but for all. Not merely in part, so that man needs must pay the remainder, but entirely and fully. The whole cup of suffering Christ drained to the last dregs. That He has done for all, for you, for me. Thou needs do nothing. Only believe and thou shalt be saved.

Those are words of comfort to us. We know that the law of God must be fulfilled before we can ever hope to enter the gates of heaven. Yet, when we are concerned about the fulfillment of it and know not how Christ from the Cross cries out to us "It is finished." We know that we must bear the penalty for all our sins. Yet when we are filled with the fear of the judgement to come, Christ again calls out to us from the Cross "It is finished." Finished is the fulfillment of the law, finished is the penalty of our sins, finished is salvation—finished for us. That is our comfort in life, that is our comfort in death. Knowing as we do, that our salvation is finished, we can depart this life in peace and enter the heavenly mansions above. May God grant this for Jesus sake, Amen.—Sermon delivered at Lutheran church, Westcott, March 29th, Contributed by a member.

EARLY ELECTION IS PENDING ON THE BUDGET VOTE

Ottawa.—Indications point to the debate being continued for a week or 10 days when the house convenes after the Easter recess. The desire of the government to expedite business has caused both Conservatives and Progressives to take steps, insuring that there will be no undue speed. As a consequence, the accomplishments to date are much less than was expected a month ago.

The character of the budget vote will be a large determining factor in the election question. If the government has a substantial majority on this most vital item of policy, it will be argued that no warrant exists for an early dissolution. If its majority be narrow, by an adverse combination of widely divergent elements, the influence will be to accelerate an appeal to the country. Present indications being that the majority will be small, the prospects of an election this year are increased in proportion. The relative blockade now in progress is said by Conservatives to be dictated by the desire to have the session continue till the Saskatchewan and Maritime province elections are over. At least, in the latter case, they will be in June.

Russia Would Raise Loan

Must Recognize Debts Before Any Proposal is Considered

London.—Representatives of Russian and British banks, the Daily Mail says, are conferring with the knowledge of the British treasury, in an effort to ascertain a basis on which Russia would be able to raise a loan in London. The Russians are understood to have been notified that English financial circles would not consider any proposal for a loan until Russia gives an understanding that she will recognize liability to repay her debts.

Phantom Airship To Revolutionize Warfare

London.—British airmen have been startled by the report that Anthony H. G. Fokker, the Dutch designer, has developed an aeroplane which will carry bombs and many guns through the air at a speed of 180 miles an hour. This phantom ship is said to be equipped with motors developing 1,000 horsepower. The new Fokker model is capable of climbing six miles into the sky, so that it would become virtually invisible to anti-aircraft gunners.

Makes Parachute Jump From Moving Plane

Demonstration Given in B.C. By Flying Officer of High River, Alta.

Vancouver.—The first parachute jump from a moving airplane to be made in Western Canada took place at the Jericho Beach station of the Royal Canadian Air Force, when N. Carter, flying officer of the High River, Alta., station, gave a demonstration to the officers who are in training here. Pooled on the wing of a seaplane, which was flying 800 feet over the grounds of the Jericho golf club, Carter allowed the small parachute which guides the bigger one to a perpendicular position, to flutter out. Then he pulled the release cord, and the 24-foot expansion of silk puffed open in the breeze. The airman was pulled from the plane with a jerk. He landed on the fairway with a bump, but unharmed.

Earl Of Balfour Reaches Nazareth

British Statesman Received at Settlements With High Honors

Nazareth, Palestine.—The Earl of Balfour, who came to Palestine to dedicate the new Hebrew university, arrived here somewhat worn and fatigued, after a strenuous day in which he had visited the Jewish settlements of Nahalal and Balfouria, lying in the plains of Jehrael.

At Balfour the British statesman was received with the highest honors the Jews can pay an illustrious visitor, a scroll of the law being carried before him under a canopy, and bread and salt placed for him on a table. The ceremony took on the nature of a formal dedication of the settlement.

Brilliant weather favored the tour of the distinguished guest.

French Consulate At Vancouver

Vancouver.—The French Government has decided to re-open the consulate here which has been closed since 1907, it is announced. The new consul will be P. Suzor, who has been in charge of the French consulate at Capetown, South Africa, since 1922. Since 1907, the Vancouver office has been operated through the consul-general at Montreal.

Race Track Restrictions

Winnipeg.—Restriction in the number of race tracks in Manitoba is sought in a bill to be introduced in the legislature by W. D. Bayley, Independent, Assiniboia. Mr. Bayley, in giving notice of the bill, stated that it was not intended to eliminate race tracks, but to end the evident exploitation of race tracks as commercial enterprises by unreliable promoters.

Chinese For Wembley

Victoria, B.C.—In picturesque Mandarin costume, Sir Robert Hotung, member of the Hong Kong legislative council, and representative of Hong Kong at the Wembley exhibition, arrived from China on board the liner Empress of Canada, enroute to London. "I am satisfied that the Wembley exhibition will again be a signal success," said Sir Robert.

Duc de Nemours Visits Calgary

Calgary.—Prince Charles Philippe d'Orleans, who wishes to be known simply as the Duc de Nemours, arrived in Calgary in the course of his journey through Western Canada, which he will conclude by a visit to the ranch of Lord Rodney, at Fort Saskatchewan, where he will make a study of farming. ## Flight Of Dirigible Successful

Great Britain's R-33 Answered Well to All Tests

London.—Great Britain's airship, R-33, carried out an experimental flight one night recently, starting from the Pullham airfield at 7 p.m., and not returning to her mooring mast until almost noon the next day. Commanded by Major Scott, the R-33 took a leisurely flight southward in the evening, obtaining data for the construction of the new airship R-101. Major Scott sent a wireless to the airfield that the ship was answering well to every test.

About 1 o'clock in the morning the commander brought the big dirigible over London and gave late travellers about the city a good view of her in the moonlight, the spectacle recalling to many the war-time days of Zeppelin raiders.

Plenty Of Men Available At Coast

No Shortage of Help For Alberta Farmers

Calgary.—Plenty of men will be available from the coast to take care of the demand for farm hands in the southern part of the province, according to officials of the Calgary office of the Alberta Government employment service.

"Farm hands will be imported in accordance with the demand in the district and there is little likelihood of a serious shortage developing here with a big supply to draw from at the coast," remarked William Carnhill, superintendent of Calgary bureau.

Harvest Operations Near Brandon

Brandon.—Harvest operations have commenced in Brandon district when J. Couling started threshing oats and will later put some barley through the separator. Another farmer is also threshing sweet clover. This grain has all been in the stock in the field during the winter and farmers are greatly interested in the outcome of the threshing operations which are very unusual here at this season.

What Pretty Girl Did for Sick Stomach

Miss E. Rich of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I don't know what the cause was, but every few days my stomach would feel all bloated up with gas, my appetite was poor and I felt sick to my stomach—to say nothing of headaches."

"I never thought of using Carter's Little Liver Pills, until nothing seemed to help. After using Carter's I felt relieved at once—and now as soon as my stomach 'talks' back I answer with Carter's and have the last word."

Plans For British North Pole Expedition

London.—Giving details of the plans for the British North Pole aerial expedition on which he intends to start next month, Grettir Algarson, a young Iclander, says in the Daily Express that the final dash to the Pole will be made in a small non-rigid airship and not an airplane. The ship will be 150 feet long and similar to those used for patrolling the English Channel during the war, but especially designed to withstand the exceptional polar conditions. The airship will carry four passengers, a thirty-day food supply, special cooking stoves, and spare gasoline as ballast.

Assistance For Rural Schools In Alberta

Government Measure Will Make It Easier For Poorer Sections

Edmonton.—A bill providing for equalization of grants to rural schools is being introduced in the Alberta Legislature by Hon. Perren Baker, minister of education.

At the present time, many of the rural schools of the province are unable to carry on for more than three months of the year, while others, which are in a better financial condition, are able to meet all the requirements with little difficulty.

The measure suggests that a form of educational tax be imposed on all rural sections of the province alike, regardless of whether the land is within a school district or not. At present, there is a tax of three mills on land outside of organized school districts, and the measure would extend this to all lands in rural districts. The total revenue thus collected would be redistributed to the various school teachers on the basis of $500 per teacher, and, as a result, practically every district would be placed on practically the same basis. The school districts that are well off financially, will, in a measure, help to pay for the educational costs of those that are unable to carry on successfully if entirely dependent on their own resources.

To Help Aged Prima Donna

Proposed Fund on Behalf of Madame Albani, Famous Canadian Singer

Montreal.—La Presse, local French language newspaper, states that Premier Mackenzie King has invited that journal to organize a subscription on behalf of Madame Albani, the aged prima donna, whose musical successes in the latter part of the last century were world wide. Madame Albani, who was Marie Emma Lejeunesse, born at Chambly, Quebec, in 1852, is living in straitened circumstances in London. The newspaper says: "His Majesty King George V. has accorded his gracious patronage to the project of aiding the great artist, who was called by the masters of her time 'the spirit of the oratorio.'"

Will See Over Radio

Baltimore, Md.—Invention of a device known as "the prismatic ring" will enable radio fans to see the next Olympic games, as well as hear the cheering. It is predicted in a report to the American Chemical Society by the inventor, C. Francis Jenkins, of Washington, D.C.

He also promises that the "stay at homes" may see football or baseball games, a regatta or baby parades, while these things are actually happening.

Doukhobors Must Obey Law

Victoria.—"We have a law and it must be obeyed," said Attorney-General Manson in respect to the Doukhobor situation in Grand Forks. In spite of all threats made by the Doukhobors, the government proposed to enforce it. The provincial police are making arrangements to send extra men to Grand Forks, if the situation makes it necessary.

Hindenburg Refuses Nomination

Berlin.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's definite "no" was spoken by his Berlin representative, Count Von Wedel, and the Nationalist hopes that the former leader of Germany's army would be the presidential candidate of the Monarchists in the second election battle, April 28, were dashed.

NEXT EMPIRE CONFERENCE MAY BE HELD HERE

London.—The next imperial conference may be held in Ottawa, in 1927. This suggestion is being strongly urged upon the government, and is very popular among members of parliament, but the permanent officials who have to pass upon all such propositions, and naturally lean toward the conservative side of all questions, point out that before any decision can be made all the Dominions would have to be consulted.

The Baldwin Government is very favorable to the suggestion that alternative conferences should be held in one of the Dominions, and naturally, Canada has the preference, because of its nearness to the mother country, from point of distance and time of travel. Naturally, the other Dominions have to be consulted, and it will take some time to get the views of Australia, New Zealand and South Africa on the question.

To Aid Settlers

Government Loans For Settlers In Lethbridge Northern Irrigation District

Edmonton.—Settlers who take up land in the Lethbridge northern irrigation district in future will be provided with financial assistance in the way of loans for the purchase of livestock and buildings or building material and, in addition, will not be required to make water rights' payments for the first three years, according to a measure introduced in the legislature by Hon. V. Smith, minister of railways. Present residents are also given certain assistance such as an extension of the period of payments.

The measure is purely a colonization scheme with the object of settling the northern irrigation district so that the province will be able to get a return on its guarantee of some $5,400,000 in this project.

Urges Preparation For War

Conflict May Come at Any Time Says Russian General

Moscow.—General Frunze, commissar of war, said he believed the entente countries were too occupied with economic affairs to engage in immediate warfare, but he did not rule out the possibility of attack from them in the future.

"The international situation," he said, "is such that a conflict may arise at any moment; therefore, we must go on preparing the forces of war."

MORE BRITISH BOYS ANXIOUS TO COME

Many applications are being received by the Overseas Settlement Board from British youths who are anxious to come to Alberta to learn agriculture under the Headley scheme. During the winter season just closed some 60 young men were trained at Vermillion School of Agriculture under this scheme. Next season it is planned to distribute the young men who may come among the three schools of agriculture at Vermillion, Olds and Claresholm, with a new arrangement with the overseas settlement board with respect to a share of the cost.

IN MEMORIAM

How hard it is to part with those
We hold so dear;
The heart no greater trial knows.
No sorrow more severe.
We loved her, yes, no tongue can tell,
How deep, how dearly, and how well,
Christ loved her, too, and thought it best
To take her Home with Him to rest.

In loving memory of our little daughter and sister, Averil Pauline.

Contributed by her bereaved parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobson and Louden.
